

Please pray for the new SLCC graduates and their ministries.

Braden Dilley has been hired as a resident in the worship arts ministry at Christ's Church in Effingham, Illinois. He will work on several of their campuses.

Emily Ndungu and her husband, Moses ('13) are from Kenya, and plan to return there and work in children's ministry and, in turn, reach out to the parents with the gospel.

Where are
graduates
serving?

Here are just a few from this year's graduating class.

Amanda Keen begins a new children's ministry position with her husband, Elijah ('17) who will serve as youth minister at the Olney (IL) Christian Church. Together they will lead worship.

Tim Willhite is finishing a four-month investigative internship in Japan, seeking where God wants him to be in the area of global missions.
