Admission Financial Requirements

Purpose of the Requirements: Educational institutions in the United States are required by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) to have documented proof of adequate financial support before admitting an international student. Failure to complete and properly follow the instructions on this information sheet could result in non-issuance of the U.S. Government Form I-20 which is required to obtain a visa and enter the U.S. or to transfer from another U.S. School to St. Louis Christian College. If you are being sponsored by someone other than yourself, (government, church, family) then the Affidavit of Support (see back page) must be completed. In addition, an original notarized bank letter must be submitted from each person supporting you indicating that sufficient funds are in an account and readily available to be sent to St. Louis Christian College to pay for your schooling. If you are supporting yourself, then you must still submit the bank letter, but the Affidavit of Support is not required.

Supporting Bank Letter:

Instructions:

- An original letter on official stationery, or a certified true copy of such a letter, must be submitted from a bank or other financial institution where the prospective student or sponsor has savings deposits, certificates of deposit, money market certificates, or other types of accounts containing readily available funds.
- If deposits are in more than one financial institution, a separate letter must be submitted from each bank.
- The letters must provide a specific amount of funds.
- The specific amount of funds verified must total at least the amount in U.S. Dollars for one year of college plus airfare to return home. It is preferred that the amount verified is sufficient to pay for the entire time the student will be at St. Louis Christian College.
- The letters must be signed and dated within less than one year from the expected date of enrollment.
- No changes, alterations, or modifications may be made to any information appearing in the letters.
- Income tax statements or returns, proof of property ownership, and letters stating the student or sponsor possesses "sufficient financial resources" are NOT acceptable as evidence of readily available funds. Employment letters are not acceptable.
- The letters must be in English; otherwise, attach an official translation into English.

It is your responsibility to demonstrate sufficient funding is available to meet all your tuition and living expenses while studying at St. Louis Christian College. You must list all of your financial support, and the total must add up to the annual total covering tuition, fees, and living expenses.
